

Wedding Blues

Drama Night
at the Village Hall

Ockley Dramatic Society
Est. 1948

Community Theatre
for 76 years

Presents
two plays:

The Hen Party by Wendy Freeman

Connie Clark is fussing over the imminent departure of daughter Cheryl and her sister Melanie, much to the annoyance of the whole family; as they prepare to depart for Cheryl's hen party. What could possibly go wrong?

Bride Before a Fall by Robert Scott

Victor and his mistress Madelyn plot an 'accident' for Victor's dim but very rich wife Lottie. Their scheming oft goes awry as they consider many different scenarios for the deed. The final result has unexpected consequences for all three of them.

Thursday 10th, Friday 11th, Saturday 12th October

Doors open at 7.30 p.m. Curtain up 8p.m. Bar available.
Tickets £12 each.

No meal served this time, but you are welcome to bring along a picnic to graze. However, please do support our bar, these sales make a very important contribution to covering our costs and help keep our ticket prices low.

Tickets are available by email BoxOffice@CapelOckleyPanto.co.uk or on-line from: Ticket Source:
scan to buy tickets

Bride before a fall, by arrangement with Lazy Bee Scripts www.ockleydramaticsociety.org.uk