You'll laugh and you'll cry as you follow Willy Russell's musical melodrama set in Liverpool, about twins separated at birth and the effects on their personalities as they grow up of 'nature' and 'nurture'. A poor family, already with kids, is blessed with twins, but they can't cope. The mother cleans at a 'posh' house where they are desperate to have kids but can't and a deal is struck which no-one must know about. Despite the efforts of the new family the boys' paths cross time and time again as they grow and one becomes 'bad' while the other is 'good'. Hailed as the 'Musical of the Decade' and now in its 21st year, it certainly seems to be a permanent fixture in the West End.

Blues behind bars from the writers of Cabaret. Justice is on trial for the husband killing bad girls of shady Chicago. A chorus girl murders her lover but manages to get off through a strange assortment of allies. She forms an unusual nightclub act with another murderess with the hopes of keeping them both out of trouble. Songs include All That Jazz and Razzle Dazzle. A nightclub dancer... A smooth-talking lawyer... And a cell block of sin. 12 years in the West End, it would be a crime to miss it!
