Still one of the hottest tickets in the West End, demand hasn't faltered for this feelgood gem. People return time and time again. I've had a lot of requests to visit Mamma Mia once more and so we return to see this light-hearted and enjoyable story with ABBA music loved by everyone the world over from 8 to 88. See it this Summer in its second and recently refurbished home, the Prince of Wales Theatre. It truly is one of the easiest night's entertainment you can find. Including countless classic hits from three decades ago, the music that was the soundtrack to a generation is as fresh today as when we first fell in love with it. Once is not enough!!
