Backbeat, a musical stage adaptation of Iain Softley's 1994 film, charts the early rise of The Beatles, when John Lennon, Paul McCartney, George Harrison, Pete Best and Stuart Sutcliffe embarked on their journey from the famous docks of Liverpool to search for success in the seedy red light district of Hamburg. The musical concentrates on the relationship between The Beatles original bassist Stuart Sutcliffe, the striking German photographer Astrid Kirchherr with whom he fell in love, and his best friend John Lennon. The Beatles songs – 'Twist & Shout', 'Rock & Roll Music', 'Long Tall Sally', 'Please Mr Postman' and 'Money,' will be performed live on stage.
